DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is in response to applicant's response filed on November 12, 2004. Claims 1-2, 4-12 and 14-24 are now pending in the present application. This action is made final.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-2, 4-12 and 14-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gilbert et al. (U. S. 6,795,530) in view of Culli et al. (U. S. 6,304,641).

Regarding claims 1, 11 and 21, Gilbert teaches a method for providing an announcement to a calling party when the calling party calls a telephone number of a called party (Col.2, 8-10) the method comprising:

determining a telephone number of a calling party for a telephone number of the called party;

determining, in accordance with at least a portion of the telephone number of the calling party, whether the calling party is authorized to receive a first announcement and providing the first announcement to the calling party only if the calling party is authorized by the called party to receive the first announcement (Col. 2, lines 13-21).

Gilbert does not teach the telephone number of called party is a disconnected number. However Culli teaches telephone number of called party is a disconnected number. Gilbert teaches playing customized announcements based on the identity of the caller and allows a subscriber to create different greetings for different groups of callers. Thus, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to incorporate Culli's feature into Gilbert's system in order to play announcements to callers who call a disconnected telephone number. Note that both references are concerned with playing customized announcements to callers and that Gilbert verifies that the caller is authorized to receive the announcement. Obviously, there may different scenarios when announcements are played to callers, and calling a disconnected telephone number is simply one of many known scenarios.

Regarding claims 2, 12 and 22, Gilbert teaches the concept of providing an alternate announcement if the first announcement is not provided (Col. 2, lines 10-12).

Regarding claims 4-5 and 14-15, Gilbert further teaches the calling party information includes at least a portion of a telephone number of the calling party, at least a portion of the telephone number further includes an area code of the calling party, at least three digits of the telephone number of the calling party (col. 2, lines 53-55).

Regarding claims 6 and 16, Gilbert teaches calling party information comprises information about calling parties that are authorized to receive the first announcement (Col. 2, lines 14-17).

Regarding claims 7 and 17, Gilbert teaches the telephone number comprises information about calling parties that are not authorized to receive the first announcement (Col. 2, lines 10-12).

Regarding claims 8 and 18, Gilbert further teaches the first announcement is provided by an announcement server (Col. 2, line 21-31).

Regarding claims 9 and 19, Gilbert further teaches providing a connection from the calling party to the announcement server (Col. 2, lines 21-31).

Regarding claims 10 and 20, Gilbert does not teach the idea of providing a call log to the called party. However, providing the date and time information of calls is inherent in telephone billing system.

Regarding claim 23, Gilbert further teaches the telephone number comprises information about calling parties that are not authorized to receive the first announcement (Col. 2, lines 8-10).

Art Unit: 2642

Regarding claim 24, Gilbert further teaches the act of determining comprises determining whether the calling party is listed on a reject list (Col. 2, lines 14-19).

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-2, 4-12 and 14-24 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a). A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
